

Don't forget to bring contact information to the hospital during the COVID-19 epidemic!

If EMS encounters a patient with stroke symptoms, please bring contact information for the best point of contact to the hospital.

Why is this important?

In the event the stroke patient becomes aphasic and a visitor is not present during the restricted visitor policy, the hospital staff will need to know the best point of contact to learn information.